	"I originally found out about the Xbox Ambassadors program from Scratch when I came across his stream for Xbox. I remember being super surprised Xbox had such a community-based outlook, which I had never really seen a brand do before. After learning more from him and seeing what a welcoming community there was, I knew instantly this was something I wanted to be a part of. It's been an easy choice to stay involved because this community is a family and I've seen the positive impact is has on others.” — Emericagirl24

	“As an Xbox Ambassador, I contribute to the community by helping gamers worldwide via Twitter and Xbox Forums, remaining positive on social media, and by running charity streams and in-store events [prior to COVID-19]. This is what I love about the program – the freedom to participate in a variety of ways!” — Eden0032
	“I am an Xbox Ambassadors because I want to be a part of something greater than myself. I am not perfect, but I hope I contribute to Xbox safety by being an example for other Xbox Ambassadors to follow.” — FourNinjaToads
	“If you have a passion for gaming and helping others out, I suggest you go online right now, yes now, and click on the Xbox Ambassadors site. We need you. There is such good that comes from helping others and keeping them gaming. Being an Ambassador is something I am honored to be a part of, cherish and hold near and dear to my heart. I have met some of the most amazing humans from the program and look forward to meeting and chatting with many more.” — BlondiebutGeeky
